AND WHEREAS NCMR was established to act as a national depository of microorganisms, to supply authentic microbial cultures and to provide related services to the scientific community working in research institutions, universities and industries;

AND WHEREAS scientists, professors and other personnel affiliated with research, academic institutions and other Organizations, from time to time, facilitate scientific research by sharing biological materials with one another for scientific verification and other research purposes and DONOR being the repository of microbial cultures distributes/transfers microbial cultures to qualified investigators for use in their research;

AND WHEREAS the parties are desirous of reducing into writing the terms agreed between the parties;

NOW THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH AS UNDER:

The recitals hereinabove and definitions mentioned below shall always be taken as terms and shall always be looked into for interpretation, application and workability of this Agreement.

DEFINITIONS:

- a. AGREEMENT: Agreement shall mean the present agreement with all the terms and annexes.
- b. COMMERCIAL PURPOSES: the use of the MATERIAL for the purpose of profit; it include the sale, leasing, exchange, license, or other transfer of MATERIAL for profit purposes. COMMERCIAL USE shall also include uses of MATERIAL to establish service business activities and to manufacture products.
- c. DEPOSITORY: National Centre for Microbial Resource, National Centre for Cell Science (NCMR-NCCS), is engaged in Depository, maintenance, storage, propagation, quality control, ex situ conservation, sustainable use and in distribution of the Biological materials to scientific community, for advancement of knowledge in the field of biotechnology and life sciences.
- d. LEGITIMATE EXCHANGE: the transfer of the MATERIAL, within the same Company or Institution or Research Group. This also includes the transfer of MATERIALS between named public service culture collections/BioResource Centers (BRCs) for accession purposes, provided the further distribution by the receiving collection/BRC is under comparable MTA conditions as those in place at the supplying collection.
- e. MATERIAL: includes ORIGINAL MATERIAL, PROGENY and UNMODIFIED DERIVATIVES.
- f. MODIFICATIONS: substances created by the RECIPIENT by using the biological MATERIAL which are not the ORIGINAL MATERIAL, PROGENY, or UNMODIFIED DERIVATIVES and which may have new or old properties. MODIFICATIONS include, but are not limited to, recombinant DNA clones and unmodified derivatives. ORIGINAL MATERIAL: that which was originally supplied to COLLECTION by the depositor, or subsequently as a result of a re-accession of the same strain and includes modification thereof.
- g. PROGENY: unmodified descendant (e.g. subculture or replicate) from the MATERIAL
- h. RECIPIENT: legal entity or individual who purchases and/or uses the MATERIAL.
- i. SUPPLY FORM: Form of the COLLECTION recording the minimum data set of administrative, technical and scientific information enabling the access of the MATERIAL. It is an integral part of the MATERIAL TRANSFER AGREEMENT.
- j. UNMODIFIED DERIVATIVES: Substances created by the RECIPIENT, or formed as a result of any biological process, which constitute an unmodified functional subunit of the original MATERIAL.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:*RECIPIENT RIGHTS, QUALIFICATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITY

1. The DEPOSITORY hereby transfers the MATERIAL to RECIPIENT and grants RECIPIENT a limited non-exclusive license to use the MATERIAL under the terms of this Agreement.
2. The Material shall be used only for academic, non-commercial research purposes by Recipient Scientists at Institution/ Organization/ Industry or by individuals working under the direct supervision of a Recipient Scientist at Institution, who agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and are signatory to the form provided at the time of execution of this agreement.
3. The Material shall only be used by those under the Recipient under suitable containment conditions, and in compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations. The Material shall not be used in human/ animal subjects or for clinical or diagnostic purposes.

4. The RECIPIENT agrees that the MATERIAL is to be used under the responsibility of the RECIPIENT, the principles of the Convention on Biological Diversity (CDB) and taking into account international and national laws implementing the Nagoya Protocol (NP).
5. The RECIPIENT agrees that Recipient shall not sell, lease, license, lend, supply, distribute or otherwise transfer, whether for consideration or free of cost, the MATERIAL to third party, except for Legitimate Exchanges, without written consent of the Depository
6. The Recipient agrees to supply result/report/status of the researches carried out by the Recipient by the Material provided by the Depository on yearly basis as well as upon request by the DEPOSITORY.
7. The Recipient agrees to handle, store, use and dispose of the material/ Modification in accordance with best practise, local policies and the guidelines prescribed by Regulatory Guidelines and other rules, laws enacted and prevailing from time to time.
8. The Recipient must ensure that all efforts are made to secure the integrity and security of the Material/Modification, and that it is used efficiently and appropriately. Furthermore, the Recipient shall ensure that the method of disposal is in accordance with the prescribed terms under appropriate regulatory guidelines.
9. The Recipient agrees to conform to any requests to provide information on how the Material has been stored and used and disposed of, and to return any remaining Material at any time, if so requested by the DEPOSITORY, or the regulatory authorities.
10. The Recipient understands that the Material is experimental in nature, and may have hazardous properties.
